Tell Us About Your Volunteer Experience

Choose one volunteer experience and briefly describe, in one page, how the experience benefitted others. Describe what happened in your life or in the life of your family as a result of your volunteer service experience.

Remember that families are as unique as the people who are part of them. Family can include parents, grandparents, siblings, guardians, relatives, friends or people in your community.

The essay may be up to, but not more than, one 8½x11" page, one-sided, typewritten and double-spaced.

Include your name and address in the upper-left-hand corner of the page.

Community Volunteer Service

List and describe the volunteer service activities in which you have participated without pay in your community from September 1, 2002 to August 31, 2004. Community volunteer service could be a student's volunteerism in programs or projects that serve the broader community. For example, such projects as the American Red Cross, Habitat for Humanity, nursing homes and hospitals, food banks, Special Olympics and other nonprofit community-based institutions. Also eligible: school projects in connection with Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD), outreach programs and work with the physically challenged or disadvantaged members of the community. The hours reported for each activity may be verified with the Volunteer Supervisor. Add up the total number of service hours at the end of this section. (If more space is needed, you may continue on a separate page in the same format and attach it to the application. Be sure to include your name on any additional pages.) If you are unsure if a volunteer activity is eligible or not, please list it below and it will be evaluated at a later date.
